

Independence Squares
Request for Reduced Dance Admission

Note: All information will remain confidential and will be shared only with the Independence Squares Finance Committee.

Independence Squares is a not-for-profit organization and is offering limited financial accommodation to encourage you to dance on a regular basis. Financial accommodation may be available to those who are unable to participate regularly in dances due to our fee structure prohibiting them from dancing. The Fly-In is not included in this program.

While we are not asking for specific financial information, please let us know about any financial hardship you are encountering. All information will remain confidential within the Independence Squares' Finance Committee. The Finance Committee consists of the president, treasurer, and two additional board members. For a list of current Finance Committee members, please speak with any Independence Squares board member.

Financial accommodation is typically extended through the end of the current fiscal year, which is May 31.

Please provide the information below and return this application to the Finance Committee at is-finance@googlegroups.com.
